What should you do with your kitchen caddy?

Starting July 1, the kitchen caddy can be used to store food scraps as you prepare meals throughout the week. When ready, dispose of your food scraps from your kitchen caddy in your compost cart.

What goes in your kitchen caddy?

Any food waste from your home, such as:

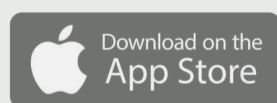

- Meat and fish (including bones and skin)
- Eggshells
- Old bread
- Tea bags and coffee grounds
- Fruit and vegetables (including peels and rinds)
- Leftover and expired foods
- Soiled paper products

Starting July 1, material in your green compost cart will be taken to our Otay compost facility where it is broken down into a nutrient rich soil additive. The compost and mulch produced will be provided back to the Carlsbad community through FREE events.
