Allen County

Serv-All has a contract with the Allen County Solid Waste Management District to operate the recycling drop-off sites. Semi-trailers are located at several locations throughout Fort Wayne and New Haven, to allow residents to drop-off recyclable materials during normal hours of operation.

The Allen County Waste Watcher web site gives detailed information on the location and hours of operation for the sites, as well as information about what can be recycled and where.

Visit Allen County Solid Waste Management's website for information regarding household hazardous waste, yard waste and composting, recycling guides and electronic waste disposal.
