

PRESS RELEASE

Contact: Auburn, IN: John Shatto (260) 442-3244

Republic Services Opens Recycling and Trash Drop-off Facility in Auburn, IN

Auburn, In – June 10, 2014 – Republic Service the area’s leading recycling and waste services company is pleased to announce the opening of its Auburn Recycling and Disposal Transfer Station on June 14, 2014.

Auburn Recycling and Disposal Transfer Station
3907 County Road 47
Auburn, Indiana 46706
Phone: 260-442-3244
Hours: 8:00am – 1:00pm
SATURDAYS ONLY

This facility will be open to the general public to meet the increasing weekend demand for recycling and trash outlets. Area residents from Auburn, Butler, Waterloo, Garrett, Hamilton, Pleasant Lake and DeKalb County now have another convenient location to recycle and dispose of unwanted items from those weekend projects.

Recycling Materials Accepted:

Cardboard, newspapers, mixed paper, phone books, magazines, aluminum and tin/steel cans, glass bottles and jars, plastics one (1) thru seven (7), and electronic waste (EWaste)

Trash Materials Not Accepted:

No – tires, batteries, paints, chemicals appliance with Freon, hazardous or infectious materials accepted.

Accepted materials and rates posted at the site.

Go to our website for further information on recycling and trash service

<http://www.republicservices.com/site/fort-wayne-in>.