Curbside Collection Instructions (All Cities)

Curbside Tree Collection for Residential Cart Customers:

See schedule above for your City

- On same day as trash/recycling collection
- Tree must be set out next to residential containers before 7 a.m. on collection day (separate collection team picking up trees)
- Trees more than 6 feet should be cut in half
- Do not place on top or in front of carts
- Remove all lights, tinsel, garland, decorations, and stand
- NO flocked or artificial trees. Carefully cut those trees into smaller pieces for your trash cart or call for a bulk item pickup.

More Tree Recycling Options for Residents:

- Carefully cut up tree and place in green cart
- Call Republic and schedule a bulky pickup
  - Bulky pickup is free to residential customers with cart service
  - Condo/apartment with dumpsters pay a fee

For Apartment/Condo with Shared Dumpsters:

- Trees will be collected from apartments and condos from January 5 through 9, 2024 (only complexes with 20 or fewer units)
- For residents with shared dumpster in large complexes of 20 or more units, you must either use the free drop-off or call Republic Services at 714-847-3581 to schedule a bulky pickup for a fee.
- Place trees next to dumpster – not in front or on top. Check with property manager or HOA for other restrictions prior to leaving tree.
- If unable to place next to dumpster, please use free drop-off location or call Republic Services at 714-847-3581 for a bulky item pickup for a fee.
